

Citywealth Top 100 Americas AWARDS Event

PRESS INVITATION

Royal Bank of Canada

GLOBAL PRIVATE BANKING

During 2006 Citywealth – a European based publishing company – undertook some lengthy research. It asked wealth managers and intermediaries from around the globe “who is your most highly respected wealth manager or advisor in the USA?”

The answers took six months to find, collate and verify with notable authorities in the private client and wealth management industry.

The May 2006 London event received incredible press coverage and the U.S. event is certain to meet with the same success.

Please join us for an exciting evening of the

THE EVENING LINE UP – 13TH DECEMBER 2006

Red Carpet, Crystal Trophies, with Robin Leach as Celebrity Host

Joe Field (above) & Joshua Rubenstein (below) will be awarded Citywealth Top 100 Advisors in 2006

The evening at Hotel Bel-Air will be a grand and prestigious affair. Designed to honor those who made the Top 100 list – it will be an Oscars-style ceremony and will remain exclusive with only the award recipients and a limited number of selected VIP guests in attendance.

Guests will arrive to a red carpet and valet service before being escorted by a Marilyn Monroe look-a-like to the famous, swan-lawn for pre-dinner cocktails. Here a photographer and celebrity host, Robin Leach, will greet attendees and a photograph will be taken as the crystal, engraved trophy is presented to each award recipient. Following, guests will move to the Hotel Bel-Air ball room for a three-course, gourmet, silver service dinner. Winners of the Citywealth Magic Circle Awards, sponsored by the Royal Bank of Canada, will be announced by celebrity host, Robin Leach.

After the initial Citywealth Top 100 Americas trophies have been presented at the cocktail reception, there is another awards section to the evening. Key individuals will be given a special awards prize for excellence in wealth and private client work.

As dessert is served, the prestigious Magic Circle Awards, sponsored by the Royal Bank of Canada, will be presented by state for two individuals only — for which winner's names will not be announced in advance. For example, New York City two individuals will win the awards.
